PRACTICES Litigation, Labor and Employment, Oil and Gas Litigation, Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) and Workplace Disasters

Serving as a dedicated associate in Haynes and Boone's Litigation Practice Group, Julia Peebles focuses on navigating clients through the litigation process and providing legal guidance on complex matters. Julia leverages her extensive oral and written advocacy skills to deliver results-driven legal advice on various practice areas, including commercial, energy, and employment law.

Julia's experience includes representing clients in all stages of litigation, from successfully negotiating deals, to composing winning trial and appellate briefs on various subjects including discrimination claims and breach of contract disputes.

Julia earned her law degree from the University of Houston Law Center, where she served as the Moot Court team's Executive Director and received the State Bar of Texas Appellate Section's Award for Appellate Excellence in Appellate Advocacy for the University of Houston Law Center.

When not serving clients, she is committed to the professional development of current law students at her alma mater. She is a coach for the University of Houston's Moot Court team, providing advice on oral and written advocacy.
